

The Underground Brewers of Connecticut Present the 21st Annual Southern New England Regional Homebrew Competition
Sunday, October 3, 2010
Sponsored by My Place Restaurant and Maltose Express

The Competition at a Glance

The 21st Annual Southern New England Regional Homebrew Competition (SNERHC) will be held on Sunday, October 3, 2010, at Edmund Town Hall, Newtown, Connecticut. The SNERHC 2010 is sanctioned by the Beer Judge Certification Program (BJCP). Further details may be found on the SNERHC website, www.undergroundbrewers.org. Points earned at SNERHC will count toward the New England Home Brewer of the Year (NEHBOTY) awards for 2010.

The competition organizers promise a professionally run competition with feedback for all entries. Brewers will receive comments on their beers on official scoresheets filled out by judges recognized by the BJCP. In addition to first, second and third prizes in each category, awards will be given for the Best-of-Show beer and two runner-ups. An award will also be given for the best beer entered by a brewer who has never entered a competition. A Best Batting Average award will also be awarded to the brewer submitting three or more entries who comes closest to his or her maximum potential number of ribbons.

Enter online and/or register to help as a judge or steward at the competition at www.undergroundbrewers.org. Copies of this notice may be obtained at most home brew supply shops, or may be downloaded from the website.

Competition Rules and Entry Information

Online bottle registration/entry is required, www.undergroundbrewers.org.

1. THERE ARE NO LIMITS TO THE NUMBER OF BEERS ENTERED BY EACH BREWER. There will be no limit to the numbers of mead and cider entries.
2. Beers will be grouped for judging by the 23 categories specified in the BJCP 2008 Beer Style Guidelines. Entries for mead and cider will also be judged. Detailed BJCP Guidelines may be obtained at www.bjcp.org.
3. Anyone may enter. All entries must be brewed at home, not in a commercial operation. There is no limit on entries per category.
4. The fee is $7.00 per entry. Payment must be by check payable to Von Bair. Include payment with the entries.
5. Brewers must submit two or three 10-ounce or larger green or brown bottles for each beer entry. Bottles with raised lettering will be accepted. Brewers submitting two bottles do so at their own risk, since there might not be a bottle available to advance to the Best-of-Show panel. Caps must be blank or blacked out. PET bottles with carbonator caps are permitted.
6. Ciders and meads will not advance to the Best-of-Show panel, so brewers may submit two 10-ounce or larger bottles or one 22-ounce or larger bottle.
7. The deadline for entries is noon on Saturday, September 25, 2010. Printed entry forms must accompany entries.
8. Entry descriptions on Competition Entry Forms are final. Changes in entry categories, subcategories and ingredients cannot be accommodated after September 25th. Entrants may remove entries from competition at any time.
9. Bottle labels must be attached to each bottle with a rubber band — no tape. Please print the online labels ONLY, as others complicate registration. Bottle labels must include additional ingredients, carbonation, base beer, etc., where it is required by the BJCP guidelines.
10. Please do not include self-addressed envelopes with the entries; this only complicates things. However, postage stamps — about three per entry — would be appreciated.
11. Bottles — filled or unfilled — will not be returned to brewers.
12. Prizes will be awarded to all brews placing first, second and third in each of the 28 categories in the guidelines, even if some categories are collapsed for judging purposes. Prizes will not be awarded to a brew scoring less than 21 points out of the maximum 50. Best-of-Show prizes and a novice prize will also be awarded. A Best Batting Average award will also be awarded to the brewer submitting three or more entries who comes closest to his or her maximum potential number of ribbons.

Judges and Stewards

Judges and especially stewards are needed for the SNERHC. Persons interested should apply online at www.undergroundbrewers.org. Applications from judges and stewards should be made as early as possible for planning purposes.

Judges and Stewards must report to the judging site no later than 8:30 AM. Judging will start promptly at 9:00 AM. Morning coffee, doughnuts and bagels and a lunch will be provided.

BJCP experience points will be awarded according to BJCP rules. If necessary, points will be awarded in the order of pre-registration.

Drop Off Points

Entries may be shipped via UPS or dropped off, addressed to SNERHC:
